MY PAINTING DISPLAYED IN A HOME.

SUSAN VON BORSTEL

www.susanvonborstel.com

Paintings, sculpture, and music are powerful forms of communication. Telling visual stories is my inspiration for painting. In the past, my living subjects often represented many qualities people enjoy such as beauty, playfulness, togetherness, and being their natural selves. A viewer might find jumping off places that inspire their thoughts.

My new series, Animals Lead by Example, encourages viewers to imagine the many things all people have in common and find joy in considering people's similarities. Many animals can do it and so can we!
